IMPORTANT SAFETY RECALL:
FERADYNE OUTDOORS RHINO 24' HOT FOOT CLIMBING STICKS

FeraDyne Outdoors is recalling certain Rhino Brand 24-foot Hot Foot Climbing sticks, Model RTSL-24, in cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC). The rungs on the climbing stick can break off at the weld point supporting the pole, creating a potential fall and laceration hazard. We are contacting you because our records indicate that you may have purchased one of the affected products.

Recalled Rhino 24-foot Hot Foot Climbing Stick, Model RTSL-24

The model name “RTSL-24” and lot codes are printed on a label attached to the support pole. Lot codes with calendar year 2023 and all previous years are included in this recall. The lot codes have a two-digit year followed by a two-digit month i.e. 2312xx, 2212xx.

Consumers should IMMEDIATELY STOP USING the recalled climbing sticks and contact FeraDyne to receive a full refund. Consumers that either provide photographic proof of destruction or return the product to FeraDyne via prepaid shipping label will receive a full refund of the product purchase price.
